

“A true restaurateur cooks according to their own taste, and in the end, they always find the customers they deserve.”

This menu concept is essentially a test of that statement. We present to you dishes that we prepare with great patience and care, from sourcing to processing, cooking, and serving.

We are eager to update the menu “without feeling obligated,” depending on seasonal changes. For the fresh ingredients we catch at the market or from the sea, we also have a blackboard at the entrance. Make sure to check it out.

Enjoy,
The Rast Team
