

"A true restaurateur cooks according to their own taste, and in the end, they always find the customers they deserve."

This menu concept is a testament to that philosophy.

We proudly present dishes prepared with patience and care— from sourcing and processing to cooking and serving. Our menu evolves naturally, guided by the seasons and our inspiration, without the obligation of rigid updates.

For the freshest ingredients we find at the market or from the sea, check the blackboard at the entrance—you might discover something special.

Enjoy,
The Rast Team
